Dear Dr. Brandow,

My office was fragrant all last week with the scent of the lovely flowers you sent me. Thank you so much.

And, thank you so much for participating in my story on liposuction. Your presence was a wonderful addition to my piece. You were cogent, clear and animated---exactly the characteristics for which every television news magazine producer searches. What's more, your interaction with Frank came across as both professional and sympathetic.

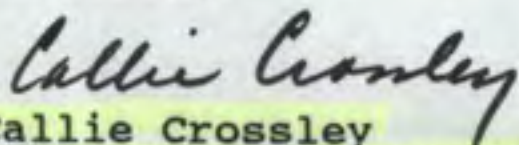

I am certain that's why I have received numerous requests for your office number. I can only assume that the switchboard at the Newman Cosmetic Surgery Center must be lit up with calls from 20/20 viewers. Because, I am still receiving phone calls and letters asking for the name of the 'doctor in Philadelphia'. Judging by the enormous interest in the story, I don't think you'll be vacationing any time soon! (Smile)

The liposuction story was one of the most enjoyable stories I have produced here at 20/20. In my nearly ten years of work on the show, I can recall only a few stories in which I liked everybody I interviewed. Believe me, it was a real treat.

Now that you are an even bigger celebrity, I hope you will continue to take my calls!

Again, thanks so much.

Sincerely,

Callie Crossley
Producer, ABC NEWS 20/20
