Kylie Jenner and Travis Scott get matching butterfly tattoos

Many stars speculating that she has just got her lips injected for it looked sexier and bigger this time. Jenner admitted that she has not really been herself when it comes to all the photos and videos she puts out. According to reports, Scott and Jenner shared images of matching tattoos of a tiny butterfly on the back of their legs, via their respective Snapchat Stories. "Unfortunately the large lips which she has give her an abnormal look, ruining the balance of her face - where the lips should accentuate her looks, not be the main feature on her face", Dr Kirk Brandow, a plastic surgeon, explained in a recent interview. "For so long, I've been putting on this different persona to the world", she said as she outlined how hard it was to grow up in front of a worldwide audience. "I'd love to know what kind you have to have them blow up like that", said fan. We know, we're spoiling you aren't we? And earlier this week, they proved just how into each other they were by debuting their new tattoos - of course, on Snapchat. "I just use the Bombshell by Victoria's Secret [bra]". And the 19-year-old television personality finds it "really crazy" how much influence she has. She added: "I think it all started with my lips when I would overline them". It's life-changing. I have gotten all my sisters on it and all my friends'. "Are there people putting sunscreen on her? lol." Kylie Jenner has earned a veritable fortune with her make-up line.
